

1. Are you a competitive person by nature?
2. How well do you deal with defeat?
3. Do you ever think about how much you earn compared to your colleagues?
4. Do you work in a competitive industry?
5. Would you encourage your children to be competitive?
6. Should a manager encourage competition between workers?
7. Are competitive people more successful in general?
8. Do you think competition always makes people more productive?
9. Would you agree that men are more competitive than women?
10. Is competition between companies always a good thing?
11. What happens when a company has no competition?
12. What strategies can small businesses adopt to compete with larger companies?