

Football (Soccer)

Who do you think is the best player in the world right now?

Which is the best football team in the world at the moment?

Do you support a football team?
Which one?

Are you good at football yourself?
What position do you play?

Have you ever played a football video game? Does it come close to the real thing?

Some people say that football is like religion. Do you agree?

Why are footballers paid so much money? Are they worth it?

Why do men like football more than women do?

Can you think of any big city rivalries in world football? Are they a good thing?

Why has football become so popular around the world?

Football (Soccer)

Who is the greatest player in the history of the game?

Which country plays the best style of football in your opinion?

Is it possible to support two football teams at once?

What is your earliest football memory?

Have video assistant referees (VAR) improved the game?

Do footballers have a responsibility to behave well off the pitch? Why is this?

If you were the president of FIFA, what would you do to improve the game?

Do you watch women's football? Will it ever be as popular as the men's game?

Do you consider football to be the beautiful game? Why so?

Will football ever go out of fashion? Why would this be?