

The Future

Do you think self-driving cars will become a reality in the near future?

Will computers become smarter than humans one day? Is this a bad thing?

Will space tourism become a popular activity one day? Will you buy a ticket?

Should we use our knowledge of genetics to improve the human species?

As technology improves in future, will there be any jobs left for humans?

Climate change will lead to disastrous consequences for humanity. Do you agree?

Are there any other catastrophes humanity will face in the future?

If there was one thing you could know about the future, what would it be?

Will human beings move to other planets one day?

Which country will be the most powerful in the world in 50 years' time?

The Future

How do you think the smart phone will evolve in future?

Do you think that robots will be used to help with cooking and other housework?

Do you think brain implants will be used to make people smarter? Will you have one?

Will human beings make contact with aliens during your lifetime?

Do you predict there will be a third world war later this century?

After COVID-19, will there be an even greater pandemic in the near future?

In general, are you optimistic or pessimistic about the future?

Do you think the earth will become overpopulated in the near future?

The global life expectancy is around 73 years. Will this increase in the future?

In general, will life be easier or more difficult for your children and grandchildren?