Third Conditional

If you had been born 100 years earlier, how would your life have been different?

If you had been given a million euros or dollars for your 10th birthday, how would you have spent it?

If somebody had invited you to an all-night rave last weekend, would you have gone?

If you had met a homeless person in the street this morning, would you have given them some money?

If you had been able to eat whatever you wanted as a child, what would you have eaten?

If a bully at school had told you to give him your lunch money, would you have given it to him?

If you had been born into a very rich family, how would your childhood have been different?

If the Allies hadn't won World War II, how would the twentieth century have been different?

If you had found a thousand euros or dollars in the street this morning, what would you have done?

If you had been your country's leader for the past 10 years, would you have done anything differently?

If you had been able to choose your career when you were a child, what would you have chosen?

If you had been offered a drug at school to make you pass all your exams, would you have taken it?
