

Language (Student A)

1. What is the most beautiful language in the world?
 2. Which do you think is the most difficult language to learn?
 3. Is it rude to speak your own language around people who can't understand?
 4. If you could change your first language, would you?
 5. Is it possible to think without language?
 6. Is it possible to create an artificial language? Would it be worth it?
 7. Is it possible to forget your first language?
-

Language (Student B)

1. Do you think there are any ugly languages? Which ones?
 2. Is it a problem that many of the world's languages are dying?
 3. Should the government control how we use language?
 4. How many languages can a single person learn in a lifetime?
 5. Does the language you speak affect your personality?
 6. Can animals use language? How could we test this?
 7. Is it possible to fall in love with someone who doesn't speak your language?
-

Language (Student C)

1. What is the most useful language in the world to know?
2. Should everybody in the world speak the same language?
3. How important is language to national identity?
4. What three languages would you really like to speak?
5. Can machines use language?
6. What happens if you don't learn a first language as a child? Can you learn later on?
7. Do you think your native language is changing? How do you feel about this?