

Management Styles (Student A)

1. What would you say is the purpose of management?
2. Do you think you have the skills to be a good manager?
3. Can an autocratic leadership style ever achieve positive results?
4. What sort of tasks do you think should be centralised in a large company?

Management Styles (Student B)

1. Have you ever worked for a good manager?
2. What is the biggest mistake a manager can make?
3. Does a democratic approach to leadership always work?
4. What would happen to your company if all the managers suddenly left?

Management Styles (Student C)

1. Why do you think people decide to become managers?
2. Is it possible to be a manager and be close friends with your staff?
3. Why do some managers adopt a laissez-faire approach? Does it work?
4. In general, what would you say makes a successful manager?