

Project Management (Student A)

1. What sort of qualities are needed to be a good project manager? Do you have these qualities?
  2. Should a project manager take all the decisions alone or involve team members in the decision-making process?
  3. Have you ever been involved in a project which failed? What went wrong and who was to blame?
  4. Is conflict within a team always a bad thing?
-

Project Management (Student B)

1. What are the most important factors to consider when planning a new project?
  2. Have you ever been involved in a successful project? What did you contribute to its success?
  3. How can a project manager ensure that individuals work as a team?
  4. Have you ever used an online project management tool? Are these tools the future of project management?
-

Project Management (Student C)

1. Is it always necessary to hire a professional project manager to ensure a project's success?
  2. What are the main reasons why large-scale projects fail?
  3. How can a project manager ensure that there is good communication within a project team?
  4. Do you think the way projects are planned and carried out will change in the next 50 years?
-