

Religion (Student A)

1. What is the main religion of your country? How has this changed over history?
 2. Is there one true religion in your opinion?
 3. Do you know anybody who is deeply religious? Has their religion helped them?
 4. Is religion really compatible with a scientific world view?
 5. Is atheism a kind of religion?
 6. Should the church influence the state or should they be separate?
 7. If a religion has survived for centuries, does this mean there is something good in it?
-

Religion (Student B)

1. Why do so many cultures have religions?
 2. Is it possible for people of different religions to live together peacefully?
 3. Can we learn lessons from the stories of Jesus or other religious figures?
 4. Should the Bible and the Koran be treated as historical documents or sacred texts?
 5. Have you read the stories of the Greek Gods? Can we learn anything from them?
 6. Is religious teaching needed in a consumer society?
 7. On balance, do you think that religions have made the world a better place?
-

Religion (Student C)

1. In many western nations, church attendance is in decline. Why is this?
 2. Are people naturally good or do they need a moral education?
 3. Should religion be taught in schools? In what way should it be taught?
 4. Is it possible to prove the existence of God?
 5. Would you vote for a politician who believed in a religion different from your own?
 6. Religion has been with us for millennia. Will it survive a thousand years more?
 7. Would you consider changing your religion? Do any other religions appeal to you?
-